

Title IX Services seeks to foster a campus culture of nondiscrimination, healthy relationships, bystander awareness and intervention, and informed reporting through training and community education. Title IX Services additionally provides an unbiased and thorough resolution process for reports of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation based upon sex or gender.

Title IX Services will achieve this through:

- Prevention Strategies and Education
- Response and Investigation
- Advocacy and Support Services